Ready to launch a new idea?

The African Drone Forum (ADF)

asks African entrepreneurs to envision new commercial use cases that may emerge resulting from this new wave of technologies such as drone delivery services, digital fabrication, and artificial intelligence for navigation and image analysis.

Benefits & Prizes

 10 Finalists fly to ADF (expenses covered) to pitch their business idea to industry leaders, investors and government.

Compete for cash prize  up to 40k GBP

Networking  potential with 1,000+ participants

Two-day Workshop + EXPO space

The objective is to promote drones as a catalyst for new business ventures and ultimately new frontier markets. As such, this Challenge does not focus on the development of new technologies, but rather on exploring sustainable and scalable solutions to important problems around mobility and data landscape.
